WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Jeff and JoAnne Goss, alongside their son Richard Morrison Jr., opened Market Cross Pub on April 1, 1994. After doing research on Carlisle, Pennsylvania, they quickly found out that Carlisle's sister city is Carlisle, England. In the center of Carlisle, England, lies Market Cross Square. They wanted to bring the English pub life to downtown Carlisle, and it has thrived for over 20 years! One of the most important parts of Market Cross is its connection to their local community. Just as an English Pub should be, Market Cross has become a second home to many people throughout the world. Market Cross Pub & Brewery is a second generation family-owned pub, brewery, and restaurant offering lunch and dinner daily, as well as pubtivities, hundreds of beers both international and domestic, our own brand of beer, fine wines and premium liquor. Their daughter Ashleigh has now joined the ownership and plans to continue to bring the English Pub life to Carlisle for many years to come!
